

Piqua, OH – 12/20/24 – Kathy Henne, has been honored with the prestigious Real Estate Star Power® Star designation. This recognition highlights her exceptional achievements and commitment to the real estate industry and her community.

Star Power is renowned for recognizing individuals who not only excel in home sales but also embody a spirit of mentorship and collaboration. The Stars are dedicated to sharing their knowledge and expertise with fellow agents, fostering a supportive and empowering community.

“I am incredibly honored to be recognized as a Star Power Star alongside such an inspiring group of professionals,” said Kathy Henne. “Star Power is more than just a network of successful agents; it’s a family committed to helping each other succeed.”

Kathy’s interview will be featured in the Star Power Club in January, sharing valuable insights into her strategies and experiences.

About Kathy Henne:

Kathy's passion for real estate knows no bounds. With over 31 years of experience as an agent and Broker/Owner of RE/MAX Finest, she has honed her expertise in various areas of the industry. From assisting first-time home buyers in finding their dream homes to serving as a skilled listing agent, Kathy is dedicated to providing exceptional service to her clients.

Recognizing the potential for wealth creation through real estate, Kathy is also well-versed in investment properties. She understands the intricacies of identifying profitable opportunities and guiding investors towards the right choices. As a buyer's agent, she meticulously evaluates each property to ensure her clients make informed decisions, whether they are upsizing, downsizing, or relocating.

Kathy's expertise extends beyond residential real estate. She has a keen eye for emerging market trends and is well-equipped to handle pre-construction projects, condos, multi-family dwellings, estates, luxury properties, farmland, lots. Her comprehensive knowledge of these diverse segments enables her to provide tailored solutions to clients with various needs and aspirations.

While Kathy thrives in the fast-paced real estate industry, she also understands the importance of maintaining a healthy lifestyle. As a fitness nut, she religiously logs 2 miles a day on her elliptical machine, ensuring she remains energized and focused to deliver the highest level of service to her clients.

Driven by a commitment to excellence, Kathy's ultimate goal is to leave her clients "Happy" with their real estate experience. She goes above and beyond to provide personalized attention, diligently guiding them through every step of the real estate process. With Kathy as your trusted real estate partner, you can be confident that you will receive exceptional service and achieve your desired outcomes in the ever-changing real estate market.
